

Identify / explain how information / narrative (story) content is related and contributes to meaning as a whole

Can match each part of the story to the correct quotation from the text?

How does the final paragraph link back to the beginning?