

Active and Passive

They sent a mission to the Moon.

They sent a mission to the Moon.

SUBJECT VERB OBJECT

A mission was sent to the Moon.

VERB (TO BE) + PAST PARTICIPLE

They called the mission Apollo 11.

They called the mission Apollo 11.

You can see craters on the Moon's
surface from Earth.

You can see craters on the Moon's
surface from Earth.

They made Neil Armstrong the
captain of the mission.

They made Neil Armstrong the
captain of the mission.

They named the lunar module The Eagle.

They named the lunar module The Eagle.

Millions of people worldwide watched
Neil Armstrong stepping onto the
Moon in June 1969.

Millions of people worldwide watched
Neil Armstrong stepping onto the
Moon in June 1969.