

Whitechapel Primary School

Year: Reception		Topic: Toys	Term: Spring 1
Key vocabulary		Sticky knowledge	Book links
Toy	An object children play with for fun.	➤ Toys can help children learn new skills, like counting, sharing, and problem-solving. ➤ Some toys are soft and cuddly, while others can move or make noise. ➤ Board games and puzzles help with thinking and taking turns. ➤ Building blocks help children learn about shapes and balance. ➤ Children can have favourite toys and can learn to share with friends. ➤ Playing with toys can help children use their imagination and be creative. ➤ Different types of toys serve different purposes: comfort, learning, or fun.	The toy museum Teddy Bears' Picnic by Jimmy Kennedy Where's Spot? by Eric Hill Dogger by Shirley Hughes Toys in Space by Mini Grey Non-fiction books about different types of toys
Favourite	The toy that a child likes the most.
Timeline	A line that shows things in the order they happened.
Material	What a toy is made from, like wood, plastic, or fabric.
Electric	A toy that needs batteries or electricity to work.
Cuddly	Soft and nice to hug.
Force	A push or a pull that makes something move, stop, or change.
Pull	To move something closer to you using your hands or body.
Push	To move something away from you using your hands or body.

