Prior learning				Disciplinary Knowledge
Printmaking is an art process. Traditional printmaking techniques include woodcut, etching, engraving and lithography. Modern artists have expanded available techniques to include screen printing. The four main techniques for printing are: relief, intaglio, lithography and stencil. Revised Vocabulary <table><tr><td>relief</td><td>matrix</td></tr><tr><td>intaglio</td><td>lithography</td></tr><tr><td>stencil</td><td>symbolism</td></tr></table>				relief	matrix	intaglio	lithography	stencil	symbolism	▪ Select and record from first hand observation, experience and imagination, and explore ideas for different purposes. ▪ Question and make thoughtful observations about starting points and select ideas to use in their work. ▪ Explore the roles and purposes of artists, craftspeople and designers working in different times and cultures. ▪ Compare ideas, methods and approaches in their own and others' work and say what they think and feel about them. ▪ Develop a painting from a drawing. ▪ Carry out preliminary studies, trying out different media and materials and mixing appropriate colours. ▪ Create imaginative work from a variety of sources e.g. observational drawing, themes, poetry, music. Printing ▪ Create prints with three overlays. ▪ Work into prints with a range of media e.g. pens, colour pens and paints.
