

Year group:	5 & 6	Term:	SPRING 2	Theme:	Tourism
Prior learning					Cross-curricular and visits/visitors
- Understanding of different coastal processes and why these may attract tourists e.g. beaches, bays. - Understand the use of mountains from previous topic e.g. skiing, hiking. Knowledge - To study with a depth focus: Llandudno, Wales - a seaside town - To understand different types of tourism (e.g. visiting friends and family activity holidays). - To understand the impact of tourism that skiing holidays in the Alps have. - To understand the growth of tourism in the UK and overseas. - To learn about sunshine holidays in Spain. - To know some advantages and disadvantages of tourism. - Begin to understand the importance of sustainable tourism. Skills (Disciplinary Knowledge) Locational knowledge: Locate the world’s countries, using maps to focus on Europe Place knowledge: A region in a European country (Spain and the Alps) Mapping: Use maps and diagrams from a range of publications e.g. holiday brochures, leaflets, town plans. Enquiry and Investigation: Make comparisons with their own lives and their own situation (own holidays). Fieldwork: Use the eight points of a compass. Communication: Identify and describe geographical features, processes (changes), and patterns.					New Vocabulary
					Seaside	A seaside resort or town is a resort village, or resort hotel, located on the coast.
					Tourist	When people travel for pleasure they are called tourists.
					Tourism	Tourism is the business of encouraging and supporting tourists.
					Environment	All the physical surroundings on Earth are called the environment.
					Accommodation	A room or place where you will stay.
					Ecotourism	Responsible travel to natural areas that conserves the environment
					Mainland	The land covering a continent, as opposed to islands off its coast.
					Destination	A place to which one is journeying or to which something is sent.
					Airport	Where all airplanes land, take off in the sky, and reside when they're not flying.
Souvenir	Something kept as a reminder (as of a place one has visited).
Pier	A platform reaching out to sea that can be used as a landing place for ships.
Ski-slope	An area of land on a hill or mountain where people can ski.
Challenging Vocabulary
Promenade	Wide path for walking on, especially one built next to a sea, lake, or river.
Air pollution	Air pollution occurs when gases, dust, smoke, or odour get into the air and make it unclean.
Sustainability	The idea that humans must interact with the environment in a way that ensures there will be enough resources left for future generations								