

Grammar and Punctuation Overview: Year Two

Spring Term

English Unit	Grammar	Punctuation
Stories with a Familiar Setting	Types of sentences – commands/statements/questions/exclamations	Full stops, capital letters, exclamation marks and question marks
	Past tense
	Generating adjectives to support narrative writing	Proofreading for punctuation
Persuasion	Present tense	Commas to separate items in a list
	Generating adjectives to support persuasive writing
Riddles	Compound sentences using and, but, or
	Use subordination for time and reason because, if, when, while, before, after	Question marks
Stories by the Same Author	Types of sentences – commands/statements/questions/exclamations	Apostrophes of possession
	Generating adjectives for narrative	Apostrophes for contractions
	Use subordination for time and reason because, if, when, while, before, after
Non-chronological Report	Types of sentences – commands/statements/questions/exclamations
	Use subordination for time and reason because, if, when, while, before, after	Proofread for punctuation errors